

In 2 Corinthians 5:11, the Apostle Paul records “Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are well known to God, and I also trust are well known in your consciences.”

From this I see there should be a “sense of urgency” never knowing the time Christ will return to claim those who are His own. (1 Thessalonians 4:15-18) Since we do not know when that is, it should cause us to place forward a great “push” so all those we know and love can be comforted in the assurance of THIS eternal bliss. The clock is ticking, what will their answer be? For those of us who are already His, the question is “What am I doing today, while it is today, to lead someone out of the darkness and into that wonderful light?”

(1 Timothy 4:15-16)

Please make a moment and think on these things. In Christ,

Archie
